

Northwest Schools of Mission presents:

Enoch Nyador - a native of Ghana, West Africa, he has served as the director of Ghana Christian Mission since 1987. His wife, Lydia, is a family doctor and ophthalmologist. They have three children: a daughter, and two sons.

The mission is a team of 26 evangelists and 40 midwives, and para-medicals. Serving 11 unreached people groups in Ghana, over 185 churches have been started, 10,000 baptized and over 500,000 patients treated through this ministry.

Enoch is a graduate of Ghana Christian University where he also taught for over 15 years. He received his M.Div. from Emmanuel School of Religion. Enoch has shared the gospel in more than a dozen African countries and has travelled to many foreign countries. He has been chosen to serve as president of International Missions (ICOM 2017) in Peoria, IL.

For recreation Enoch loves to read detective stories and play ping pong!

Enoch will be at Sunrise Christian Church on Sunday, October 11th at 10:30am.
